Rochester Gay Pride 2017

Hosted by Rochester Museum of Fine Arts & Rochester Main Street

www.rochestermafa.org/pride

The Rochester Museum of Fine Arts invites the LGBT community (and those who love them) to Hanson Street and Central Square, in downtown Rochester, for a free public pride celebration on Saturday, August 26th, 2017 from 1-4pm, with a march occurring at 3pm. The march is open to everyone in the public. Participating sponsors and vendors are encouraged to march with positive family-friendly banners and signs. Our mission is to promote unity, visibility, inclusivity, equality, and a positive image of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) community.

Vendors are encouraged to arrive as early as 11am to setup for the day. The Rochester Museum of Fine Arts will have an information booth. Feel free to stop by and say hello!

Please complete the following form and mail to the address listed below. Applications will not be accepted via email, social media, etc. Incomplete forms will not be accepted. Vendors are accepted on a first come first serve basis. Accepted vendors will be notified immediately.
